Education Seminar Series (11) by the Faculty of Education, HKU “Good Start? Grow Smart! - The Science of Parenting during Early Childhood”

The Faculty of Education, in support of the University’s drive to strengthen knowledge exchange, one of the three strategic themes of the University’s Strategic Development, takes the initiative in knowledge sharing with the public by organizing a series of education seminars for parents. The past seminars on Mathematics, English, Liberal Studies, Information Technology, sending children abroad, the ways in using voice to teach children, creative, healthy voice of children, private tutoring and parent-school partnership held since 2010 received enthusiastic response.

Our Faculty is going to organize the 11th seminar on “Good Start? Grow Smart! - The Science of Parenting during Early Childhood” in February 2015. In the seminar, the following issues will be discussed:

- Tiger Mom Vs Sheep Mom? Wolf Dad Vs Eagle Dad? Who are you?
- What is the most useful learning tool of brain?
- How to assist kids in learning Chinese?
- How to nurture English competence of kids?

Dr Li Hui is Associate Professor of the Faculty of Education, HKU. Ms Rhoda Wang and Ms Diana Lee are Lecturers while Dr Carrie Lau is Assistant Professor of the Faculty. Being an expert in early childhood education, they will share with parents and teachers how children learn and the science of parenting.

The Faculty is glad to tell the seminar is full house. Media representatives are cordially invited to the seminar, the details are as follows:

Date: February 7, 2015, Saturday
Time: 10:00am – 12:00noon
Venue: Grand Hall, Lee Shau Kee Lecture Centre, The University of Hong Kong
