Training Programme for Principals from Gansu Province
(supported by Tin Ka Ping Foundation)

The Centre for Educational Leadership and Wah Ching Centre of Research on Education in China of Faculty of Education, The University of Hong Kong (HKU) have jointly organized the Training Programme for Principals from Gansu Province in 2013-14. The Training Programme aims to stimulate principals’ reflection on the everyday practices in schools and the rationale behind, helping them to identify the most appropriate way to improve education quality in schools.

As part of the Training Programme, 20 principals of junior secondary schools from Gansu Province will participate in a series of activities including seminars, sharing meetings, presentations and school visits from 11 to 21 November 2013. School visits will be conducted to Creative Secondary School, Tin Shui Wai Methodist College, Chinese YMCA Secondary School, Po Leung Kuk Laws Foundation College and Diocesan Boys’ School in the last four days of the Training Programme on exploring teaching and learning, civic and moral education as well as student life in boarding school and its management in Hong Kong. There is also a Closing Ceremony held in the morning of 21 November in Room 405, Meng Wah Complex, HKU.

Government officials from Gansu Province will unprecedentedly join the whole Training Programme with 20 principals. With the same exposure to the very different practices in Hong Kong schools, the officials will understand better and support the change and new policies adopted in schools by the Gansu principals. To strengthen and actualize the learning experience gained in the Training Programme, the participated principals will have to develop an action plan applicable to their schools when they return to Gansu.

The Training Programme is supported by Tin Ka Ping Foundation.
