HKU Faculty of Education 40th Anniversary Seminar Series – From Past to Present: The Evolution of Speech-Language Pathology Education and Practice in Hong Kong

The year 2024 marks the 40th anniversary of the Faculty of Education at The University of Hong Kong. An Anniversary Seminar Series is organised to celebrate this milestone and the Faculty's academic achievements over the past four decades. The first seminar entitled "From Past to Present: The Evolution of Speech-Language Pathology Education and Practice in Hong Kong" will be held on September 30, 2024.

This seminar will provide an overview of the evolution of Speech-Language Pathology (SLP) education and practice in Hong Kong from its early days to the present. It will also explore the challenges and opportunities that have shaped the development of this profession, and discuss the current state of SLP services in Hong Kong. Additionally, the seminar will highlight the latest advancements in SLP education and practice and elaborate on their effects on the lives of people with communication disorders, both in the local area and in Mainland China.
