A Profile of Keung To

Keung To, also known as Keung B, is a famous Hong Kong singer, actor, and a member of the Hong Kong boy group that is called Mirror. He was born on 30 April 1999. He attended Yee Choi Man Senior Secondary School where he graduated with a diploma. He rose to fame after participating in ViuTV’s reality talent competition called Good Night Show - King Maker in 2018.

Keung made his solo debut with the single titled No. 1 Seed in June 2019. On 5 July 2019, Keung, together with Anson Lo who is another Mirror member, released the promotional single B.M.G. (Be My Girl). In July, he held his solo concert whose tickets sold out quickly.

In 2020, the COVID-19 pandemic interrupted his plans to South Korea to film a music video for a new song that had already been produced. In response to the pandemic, Keung released the single titled Saying I Love You With My Mouth Covered. In September 2020, Keung released his fifth single, Disease of Loneliness which has lyrics revolving around Keung’s personal experiences with loneliness. As an actor, Keung made a cameo appearance in the youth drama series We are the Littles aired in December 2020. He also starred in the drama series Ink at Tai Ping which was aired in January 2021, and was involved in a variety show called Be a Better MIRROR.

Keung has had great success in his career. He won the Most Popular Male Singer at the Ultimate Song Chart Awards Presentation, one of the most prestigious local music award ceremonies in Hong Kong, in 2020 and 2021. He is the youngest person who has won both Most Popular Song and Most Popular Singer in consecutive years. He is perhaps the best-known member of a new wave of Canto-pop artists passionately supported by members of the younger generation.
