

The University of Hong Kong
Faculty of Education

Postgraduate Diploma in Education

Major: Special Education (part-time only)

---

This course aims to prepare in-service teachers or related professionals with an understanding of the individual development of children and adolescents, identification of exceptional needs, as well as different knowledge and skills (non-categorical) to meet the diverse needs of the exceptional children in special or inclusive primary and secondary school settings.

Through this course, students will learn about important topics in inclusive and special education, including but not limited to identification and teaching students with special educational needs, how teachers and other professionals collaborate to adapt and differentiate the curriculum and instruction, and how to change students' behaviours.