Instructions for Submitting Supporting Documents

Please upload the following supporting documents and this completed checklist by logging on to <https://www.admissions.hku.hk/tpg/login.html> by the application deadline or within four weeks from the date of creation of your account, whichever is earlier. For each application, you are allowed to upload a maximum of 20 files of 3MB each. Your application number and name should be marked on each document.

Posting of documents is NOT required at the application stage. Should an applicant be considered for admission, he/she will receive an email notification from the Programme Office to submit the original/officially certified copy of documents (see Note 1 below). Please note that our request to submit documents does not necessarily mean that you will receive an offer of admission.

I have uploaded the following documents (tick the boxes below as appropriate) in support of my application:

<input type="checkbox"/>	1. This completed checklist
<input type="checkbox"/>	2. <input type="checkbox"/>	7. I have asked my home institution to send transcript(s) directly to the Faculty of Education, The University of Hong Kong. (Please complete the "Transcript Request Form" and send it to the appropriate officer of the institution from which the transcript is requested after receiving the Offer of Admission letter.)

Notes:

- Officially certified document is a photocopy of the original document that has been duly declared as a true copy of the original document by the applicant before a notary public (e.g. the District Offices in Hong Kong) (Please click here for details on making declarations of your documents at the District Offices. Please see a declaration sample here.) or certified by the appropriate official of your home institution (e.g. the Registry).
- Documents not in English should be accompanied by an officially certified translation into English. This will normally be provided by the Registry of the awarding institution.
- A full set of the supporting documents should be submitted separately for applications for more than one specialism/major of the same programme, or for other programme(s) of the Faculty or HKU.
- Reference letter is not required. You may submit one if you wish. There is no designated format for a reference letter.
- Please do not submit non-academically related documents.
- All documents once submitted will not be returned and will be destroyed if your application is not successful.
